EGETINE FOR CHILLS, SHAKES, FEVER

AND AGUE. TARBORO, N. C., 1878.

Dr. R. II. Stevens:

Dear Sir—I feel very grateful for what your valuable midicine, Vegetine, have done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wenderful cure of my son; also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1873, which left him with Hip-joint disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain, all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the Louisville Courier-Journal, that Vegetine was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He kept on with the medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without Dr. R. II. Stevens : He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a younger son, fifteen years of age, who is subject to Chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like most of the medicine recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.

Respectfully Mrs. J. W. LLOYD.

VEGETINE.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the VEGETINE will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, and the stagnant regulate the bowels. and cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

VEGETINE FOR DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUSNESS, AND GENERAL DEBILITY.

BERNARDSTON, MASS., 1878.

We, the undersigned, having used Vegetine, take pleasure in recommending it to all those troubled with Humors of any kind, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, or General Debility, it being the great Blood Purifier. who had been long and painful sufferers. EGETIN DRUGGISTS' TESTIMONY.

Mr. H. R. Stevens : Dear Sir-We have been selling your remedy the Vegetine, for about three years, and take the Vegetine, for about three years, and take plessure in recommending it to our customers, and in no instance where a bleed purifier would reach the case, has it ever failed to effect a cure, to our knowledge. It certainly is the ne plus ultra of renovators. Respectfully, COWHIDING A MAYOR. - The Pittsylvania Tribune says: "We have been informed by a gentleman from Franklin that a very disagreeable and unfortunate affire occurred last alonday between a friend of ours Mr. N. W. Cabell, of this county, and Mr. Jesse Prunty, at Rocky Mount. In the evening of court day Nat was on the streets of Rocky Mount and was rule's accosted by a drucken man, whom he struck a blow with his fist, for which he was arrested and taken before the Mayor for trial. While he was making his statement about the affair, on oath, of course, we suppose, the Mayor contradicted him, saying he was looking on when the difficulty occurred. Nat was fined $5.00. He paid the fise, precured a cowhide, went and demanded the mayor to retract his charge of implied falsehood against him, which he refused to do. The information that reaches u. is that Nat pulled him out of the store and inflicted upon him a thorough cowhiding, giving him about fifty stripes. Nat was then taken in charge by the town sergeant and fixed $20 for the breach of the peace which he promptly paid. We hear that Pruoty has instituted an action of assault and battery against him, and laid his damages at $2,000. It was one of the liveliest scenes ever witnessed at the court house. Mrs. Prunty, who lived over the store, hearing the noise came out and seeing what was going on began to bellow. Knives and pistols were drawn, the friends of both parties rushed in, and had firing begun several doubt-less would have been killed. The last we heard of Nat he was at Haile's Hotel that night at a grand hall, having a gay time

'waltzing out' the Rocky Mount ladies. GAMBLING IN WASHINGTON,-The Washington Republic says :- "Those who have faith in our police authorities doubtless believe that gambling houses no longer exist in the Federal metropolis, and that this "road to ruin" has been barricaded. But those who "gambol'on the green" say that never has there been so much gambling here as now, al though it is made more attractive by being carried on in the private apartments connected with restaurants and bar rooms, in hotels, and especially at so called club houses. No where else is there such a variety of facile prey. As piring young Congressmen find good natured guides of aristocratic names and distinguished manners, who, having impoverished themselves, get their living by decoying others. "It is also hinted-but I we are loth to believe it-that there are well known places where the gentler sex play at cards for money, and often play heavily. Foolish young wives frequent these abominable resorts, and hardened old dowagers go there to increase their limited meaus. This is all wrong. Ladies may bet gloves on horse races, and pounds of early on elections, but we are sure it is not one of Woman's Rights to play at cards for money, a though 'those herrid men do.' "

A SAD ROMANCE.—The death of Judge Leonard, of Louisiana, brings to light a sad romance in the proof of the adage that "the Is acknowledged by all classes of people to be the best and most reliable blood purifier in the course of true love never did run smooth." The Judge met in New Orleans and loved and was loved by a young lady of Caba. An ea-gagement ensued. The parents objected, pleading the girl's youth (the Judge was but 32,) and took her back to Cuba, promising. however, to permit the lovers to correspond. Af ter some months Leonard discovered that the letterson both sides had been intercepted. He went to Washington, interested the President, Cabinet, Spanish Minister, and especially Madame Mantilla in his cause. Armed with strong letters he went to Havana to see his lady love. Since then but one letter from him, telling of an interview, of coldness, of barriers that he scarcely hoped to overcome, and then-the news is es bled of his death. That is all of it-a sad story. A dispatch from Havana states that the remaies of the late Judge Lonard have been embalmed and placed in the cemetery to await the directions of his friends. The dispatch also states that with the exception of the fatal case of Mr. Leonard there has been no yellow fever in the city for two months. His friends sus pect foul play.

AN EXCITING DUEL .- One of the most ex traordinary duels, perhaps, that have ever taken place came off the other day at a place called Fulwood, near Preston, when an angry donkey and an irate ram came to leggerheads in a field belonging to a Mr. Wilkinson, a farm er. The ass, which belonged to a Mrs. Kellett. had been in the habit of visiting one of its own kind which grazed on Mr. Wilkinson's land, and his trespasses had often been resented by an old black faced ram, one of a flock of sheep pasturing in the same field. On Friday last the ram seemed determined to have a bout with Neddy, and attacked him furiously, goring him grievously with his formidable horas. The ase, however, met his as saults bravely, plunged round with astonishing agility, kicked out at the old ram with terrible force, and sometimes with stunning effect. A: last he seized the ram by the nose and shook him as a dog worries a rat, bit him about the head and neck repeatedly, and left him welter ing in his blood, marching off victoriously, their combat having lasted nearly half an hour .-Shortly afterwards the ram died from less of blood and the injuries he had sustained-Irish
